

Mediation Service

Every's Solicitors' Mediation Service is an alternative method of resolving a dispute without the need for going to court. A Mediator is an independent person who has been specifically trained to help those involved in a dispute find and reach a solution.

Every's offer a Mediation Service for Civil and Family Law disputes, and will shortly be able to provide mediation for Court of Protection disputes. Our mediators are highly skilled and qualified.

For more information on mediation, please visit our website at everyys.co.uk/personal/mediation; or to speak to a member of our Mediation team, call our Exeter office on 01392 477983 or free on 0800 8840 640.

Our Mediators

Civil Mediation

Kathy Trist

Kathy is an Accredited Civil Mediator who realises the positive benefits of mediation for those in dispute. Kathy particularly enjoys mediating property related disputes, such as neighbour, boundary, landlord and tenant, as well as contract disputes, negligence claims, trust disputes, misrepresentation claims, money claims and large commercial business disputes. Kathy considers that mediation offers a real alternative and allows those in a dispute to explore potential solutions in a calm and managed way.

Liz Kendall

With over 20 years of mediating cases, Liz is a firm advocate of mediation being offered and utilised as an alternative method of settling disputes. Specialising in civil litigation and community matters, Liz has a particular interest in workplace and personal injury matters and practises time limited mediation, where no claim is too small. She is a Civil Mediation Council Accredited Mediator and a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Legal Executives.

Liz is one of the founding members and Vice Chair of the Devon & Somerset Law Society (DASLS) Mediation Panel, which was put together at the request of the local County Court to pilot a scheme whereby the local judiciary could refer cases across that were suitable for Mediation.
